 6 §1051 et seq.

7       11. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's pendent state
 8 law claims

9 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1337 in that the state law claims are integrally interrelated
 10 with Plaintiff's federal claims and arise from a common nucleus of operative facts
 11 such that administration of Plaintiff's state law claims with its federal claims 12 furthers the interest of judicial economy.

13       12. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant PARIS

6       22. Further, this action arises out of wrongful acts by Defendants within

ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

10        23. Plaintiff is the exclusive owner of the trademark “CREPES DE 11 PARIS” (the “CREPES DE PARIS mark”), which is a federally registered 12 trademark in April 12, 2016, referenced by U.S. Registration No. 4,936,207.
13 Plaintiff is also the exclusive owner of the servicemark No. 3,293,337, registered
14 in September 18, 2007, under “CREPES DE PARIS” mark with the Eiffel Tower
15 in the background of the mark (the “EIFFEL TOWER mark”). The English 16 translation of the word “de” in the mark is “of.”

18        24. In connection with the CREPES DE PARIS mark and EIFFEL
19              TOWER mark, Plaintiff sells a diverse range of food products, such as crepes, cold 20              and hot sandwiches, soups and salads, omelettes, and other food and beverages.

21       25. The food products mentioned above were sold and continue to be sold 22 by Plaintiff in interstate commerce by substantially and economically affecting the 23 interstate commerce of the United States. Furthermore, Plaintiff is advertising in its 24 own website under www.crepesdeparis.com and has its own Yelp page for 25 customer reviews.

26. Plaintiff personally designed the two marks and began using the 27 marks and selling the goods which had substantial economic effect in interstate 28 commerce as early as 2007.

1       27. Before and after federally registering the EIFFEL TOWER mark,
 2 Plaintiff has continuously used the EIFFEL TOWER mark, since at least
 3 September 18, 2007, in and around the state of California, had substantial 4 economic impact on the interstate commerce, in association with the sale,
 5 distribution, and advertising of a diverse array of food products through Plaintiff's 6 business. Plaintiff also registered the CREPES DE PARIS mark with the United 7 States Patent and Trademark Office in April 12, 2016. Such use has resulted in 8 considerable goodwill in the two marks.

9       28. Plaintiff has spent and continues to spend considerable resources in 10 establishing and maintaining a strong and healthy reputation and goodwill relating 11 to the use of two marks. For example, due to Plaintiff's continuous efforts and 12 spending of considerable resources in maintaining such reputation and goodwill,
 13 Plaintiff's business had expanded considerably throughout the Southern California
 14 by opening, operating, and maintaining several restaurants in Pasadena, Valencia, 15 Rancho Cucamonga, Mission Viejo, Claremont, Los Angeles, and Jurupa Valley.

16       29. Plaintiff also spent and continues to spend considerable resources in 17 designing and creating the wide variety of crepes designs, as well as coffee and 18 cappuccino cream designs. Plaintiff also spent considerable resources and time in 19 designing and creating the coffee cups, plates, and other tableware and glassware,
 20 which all contributed in adding value to the goodwill and reputation of Plaintiff's 21 business.

22       30. Plaintiff's Menu also furthered the establishment in maintaining a 23 strong and healthy reputation and goodwill of Plaintiff's business. For example, the 24 Plaintiff's Menu begins with the category of Savory Crepes, and specifically lists
 25 the crepes as "Cheese Crepes," "Ham & Cheese Crepes," "St. Louis," "Des Amis," 26 and others. Other categories in the Plaintiff's Menu also indicated "Sweet Crepes," 27 "Cold Sandwiches," "Hot Sandwiches," "Soup & Salads," "Breakfast Crepes,"

1     “Omelettes,” and “Rolled To-Go Crepes.” Specific food products are listed under 2 the food categories. Plaintiff had substantially taken effort and time to create the 3 Menu, and the Menu had remained consistent throughout and during the operation
 4 of Plaintiff’s business, which generated tremendous amount of gross sales for the 5 Plaintiff.

6       31.     A trademark is a word, a name, a symbol, a device, or a combination
 7 that indicates the source of respective goods. The owner of a trademark has the 8 right to exclude others from using a confusingly similar trademark. The owner of a 9 trademark has the right to protect its mark from being used by others as means to 10 confuse and deceive consumers with respect to the source of the goods the 11 consumers are purchasing. Trademark rights arise by commercially using the 12 trademark as a source identifier for the respective goods. By Plaintiff and his 13 business marketing, offering to sell, advertising to sell, and selling the Plaintiff’s
 14 foods products within California, thereby substantially and economically impacting 15 interstate commerce, the term "CREPES DE PARIS," operates as a designation of 16 source for such goods. That is, Plaintiff’s and his business use in commerce of 17 CREPES DE PARIS mark and EIFFEL TOWER mark establishes CREPES DE
 18 PARIS as a trademark, as understood by both federal law and by California state 19 law.
 20

DEFENDANTS’ INFRINGING CONDUCTS

21       32.     Defendant JOSE F. MAGANA began working as Plaintiff’s employee
 22 in 2011. Defendant MAGANA terminated his employment with Plaintiff in April
 23 30, 2017. Defendant LETICIA VALDEZ also began working as Plaintiff’s 24 employee in October 2016. Defendant VALDEZ terminated her employment in or 25 around March 2017.
 26

27       33.     After such terminations, in or around April 2017, Plaintiff discovered
 28 that Defendants had begun to associate or were associating with Defendants

1 ARZATE MAURICIO SALGADO and PARIS SEAFOOD & CREPES.

2 Defendant PARIS SEAFOOD & CREPES is also doing business as PARIS
3 HOUSE OF CREPES.

4       34. In or around May 2017, Plaintiff discovered that PARIS SEAFOOD
5 & CREPES was opened for business, and Defendants began selling, offering to 6 sell, distributing, marketing, and advertising to sell to the public in the premises
7 owned by TALAT and NATASHA RADWAN. In the Yelp homepage for PARIS
8 HOUSE OF CREPES, Plaintiff observed that the photos of PARIS HOUSE OF 9 CREPES were exactly or substantially similar to Plaintiff's designs. Specifically,
10 the photos in the Defendant's Yelp Page shows the coffee cream's designs, as well 11 as the various crepes designs, which were exactly or substantially similar to the 12 ones created by Plaintiff. Plaintiff further observed that the photos were directly 13 taken or copied from the Plaintiff's websites.

14       35. Defendant's mark was also substantially similar to Plaintiff's mark, 15 thereby causing likelihood of confusion among the consumers. PARIS HOUSE OF 16 CREPES is a mark that is substantially similar to Plaintiff's mark, CREPES DE 17 PARIS. For example, besides the word "House" that was used and advertised by 18 Defendant for its mark, the remaining words are exactly the same. "Crepes de 19 Paris" rearranged in exact words are "Paris of Crepes." Furthermore, throughout 20 the PARIS HOUSE OF CREPES' Menu and the retail store, the imagery of Eiffel
21 Tower can be seen next to the Defendant's name.

22       36. In May 2017, Plaintiff obtained a copy of Defendant's Menu from 23 Defendant's place of business. Plaintiff discovered that the Menu was exactly the 24 same on the content of the goods, the order of the products categorized and listed
25 in the Menu, and the italicized font size of the description of the goods.
26 Notwithstanding the different font used for the categories listed in the Menu, 27 Defendant's Menu is exactly the same as of Plaintiff's. Plaintiff believes, and

LAW OFFICES THOMAS F. NOWLAND

NEWPORT BEACH, CALIFORNIA 92660
TELEPHONE: (949) 221-0005

1 therefore alleges, that Defendants VALDEZ and MAGANA had deliberately and 2 intentionally taken Plaintiff's Menu with the intent to copy such Menu for the 3 purposes of beginning a new business with Defendant SALGADO.

4       37. In May 21, 2017, Plaintiff ordered several food products from 5 Defendant PARIS HOUSE OF CREPES. Specifically, Plaintiff ordered a Tuna
6 Salad Sandwich, Iced Cappuccino, Chicken-Spinach Crepe, Lorina Soda, and 7 Fresh Juice. Plaintiff discovered that the goods designs ordered and the glasswares 8 which was used to place the food were exactly the same or substantially similar to 9 Plaintiff's goods.

10      38. Plaintiff also observed that the coffee cups, crepes plates, and other 11 glasswares used by Defendant for advertisement were exactly the same one used
12 by Plaintiff. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants
13 VALDEZ and MAGANA had converted the cups, plates, and other glasswares, 14 and used it for the purposes of Defendant's profit.

15      39. Plaintiff has never given any permission, via a license, a writing, or 16 any other instrument, whatsoever, for the Defendants to use the two marks in 17 association with providing any of the products noted herein. Plaintiffs also had not 18 consented to, sponsored, endorsed, nor approved of Defendants' use of the two 19 marks or any similar variations thereof in connection with the manufacture, 20 marketing, and/or sale of any products or services.

21      40. Defendants' conducts are classic examples trademark infringement 22 and unfair competition. Defendants offer other non-authentic or copied products to 23 consumers under the substantially similar trademark of another and without 24 authorization to do so. That is, the Defendants are inducing consumers to purchase 25 Defendants' goods by advertising that such goods are authentic and legitimate to 26 Plaintiff's business. Defendants' are trading off of the goodwill and reputation
27
28

1 associated with the EIFFEL TOWER mark and CREPES DE PARIS mark, at a
2 detriment to Plaintiff.

3       41. Defendants' conducts are also classic examples of common law
4 copyright infringement and vicarious and/or contributory copyright infringement.
5 Defendants had taken control, made copies or derivative works of Plaintiff's 6 copyrighted goods, including coffee or cappuccino cream designs, crepes designs,
7 Menu designs, photographs, coffee cup designs, as well as other Plaintiff's goods
8 at the detriment to Plaintiff and without Plaintiff's consent.

9       42. Defendants' activity and conduct is clearly very likely to cause 10 confusion, because the Defendants are using the substantially similar name as 11 CREPES DE PARIS mark in relation to offering to sell the same purported type of 12 goods, and are simultaneously using the exact same product designs, Menu, and 13 photographs. By using the substantially similar name, the same purported type of 14 goods, and means and methods of distribution of goods, Defendants are targeting 15 the exact same type of customer who ordinarily would be searching for and 16 purchasing authentic and legitimate CREPES DE PARIS goods. This is classic 17 trademark and copyright infringement by the Defendants unfairly competing with 18 Plaintiff and his company, by using substantially similar name PARIS HOUSE OF 19 CREPES in a manner that is extremely likely to cause confusion as to the origin of 20 the purchased goods and as to the quality associated with CREPES DE PARIS
21 goods. One purpose of trademark law is to avoid confusion in the marketplace by 22 allowing the trademark owner to prevent others from duping consumers into 23 buying a product they mistakenly believe is sponsored by the trademark owner.

24       43. Upon information and belief, Defendants' infringing and unfair
25 competing activities and conduct are conscious, intentional, and willful.
26
27
28

1       44. Plaintiff has never authorized Defendants' to manufacture, distribute,
2 advertise, offer for sale, and/or sell merchandise in association with the CREPES
3 DE PARIS mark.

4       45. Plaintiff has never permitted Defendants to use his photographs to 5 advertise, offer for sale, and/or sell merchandise on the Yelp homepage or 6 anywhere else.

7       46. Further, Defendants' conduct as noted herein is also common law
8 fraud for the consumers of Defendants that have purchased goods from Defendants 9 that were sold as allegedly being authentic and legitimate Crepes de Paris goods.
10 Plaintiff has a vested interest in protecting the reputation and goodwill in the 11 CREPES DE PARIS and EIFFEL TOWER marks which includes informing such 12 customers of Defendants that those customers had not purchased authentic and 13 legitimate goods from the Defendants.

14       47. Plaintiff is also informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that 15 Defendants had taken possession of coffee cups, plates, other glassware, as well as 16 Plaintiff's Menu designs and other items, without the authorization of Plaintiff, 17 thereby committing common law conversion.

18       48. Individuals are included in this action because the causes of actions
19 (claims), whether statutory or based in common law, sound in tort, and it is well 20 settled law that the 1 individual tortfeasor may always be held personally liable for 21 the torts they have committed. Defendant ARZATE MAURICIO SALGADO,
22 Defendant JOSE F. MAGANA and/or Defendant LETICIA VALDEZ have acted,
23 authorized, sanctioned, ratified, and/or are responsible for Defendant PARIS
24 SEAFOOD & CREPES's conduct and for the unlawful conduct noted herein.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Federal Statutory Trademark Infringement Under 15 U.S.C. §1114

(Against All Defendants)

49. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference paragraphs 1 through 48 above as though fully set forth herein.

50. Plaintiff's federally registered trademark, with U.S. Registration No. 4,936,207 and with U.S. Registration No. 3,293,337 are valid and in full force and effect across the entire United States.

51. Plaintiff has never authorized Defendants to manufacture, distribute, advertise, offer for sale, and/or sell merchandise in association with the CREPES DE PARIS or EIFFEL TOWER marks. Therefore, Defendants' use of the two marks is without permission or authority, and is in total disregard of Plaintiff's intellectual property rights to control and use his mark.

52. Defendants' unauthorized use and advertising of the CREPES DE PARIS or EIFFEL TOWER marks in interstate commerce constitutes false designation of origin and a false representation that Defendants' goods are manufactured, offered, sponsored, authorized, licensed by or otherwise connected with Plaintiff or come from the same source as Plaintiff's goods and are of the same quality as that assured by the two marks; neither of which are true.

53. Defendants' activities are likely to lead to and result in confusion, mistake or deception and are likely to cause consumers, the public, or trade to believe that Plaintiff has produced, manufactured, sponsored, offered, authorized, licensed or otherwise affiliated with Defendants' company or business, to the detriment of Plaintiff.

54. Upon information and belief, Defendants' actions are deliberate, conscious, willful and intended to confuse consumers and the public as to the

1 origin of Defendants' goods in order to reap the benefit of Plaintiff's goodwill
 2 associated with the CREPES DE PARIS and EIFFEL TOWER marks.

3       55. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' infringing activities, 4 Plaintiff has been injured and will continue to suffer injury to his business and 5 goodwill unless Defendants are restrained by this Court from further infringing the 6 CREPES DE PARIS and EIFFEL TOWER marks.

7       56. Defendants' actions have damaged and will continue to damage
 8 Plaintiff, and Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

9       57. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief
 10 enjoining Defendants from continuing to use the CREPES DE PARIS and EIFFEL
 11 TOWER marks, and to recover from Defendants all damages, including the costs
 12 of this action pursuant 15 U.S. C. § 1117(a), to attorneys' fees and treble damages
 13 pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1117(b), and/or statutory damages pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §
 14 1117(c), all of which have been or will be incurred as a result of Defendants' 15 infringing acts.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Federal False Designation of Origin and False Advertising Under 15 U.S.C.

§1125(a)

(Against all Defendants)

21       58. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference paragraphs 1 through 57
 22 above as though fully set forth herein.

23       59. The CREPES DE PARIS mark is a nonfunctional mark and serves to 24 identify Plaintiffs' products such as, but not limited to, crepes, crepes designs, 25 coffee cream designs, Plaintiff's Menu listings and designs, cups, plates, and other

 24 above as though fully set forth herein.

25       64. The actions and conduct of Defendants described above and 26 specifically, without limitation, their unauthorized use of the CREPES DE PARIS
 27 mark, and any confusingly similar variations thereof, in commerce, to advertise,

21       67. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference paragraphs 1 through 66
 22 above as though fully set forth herein.

23       68. Plaintiff owns and enjoys common law trademark rights in the 24 CREPES DE PARIS mark in California and throughout the United States by virtue 25 of continued use in commerce in all 50 U.S. states.

26       69. Defendants' unlawful acts in appropriating rights in the CREPES DE 27 PARIS mark and using Plaintiff's photos were intended to cause a likelihood of 28 confusion and were intended to capitalize on and trade off of the reputation and

1       goodwill in the CREPES DE PARIS mark for Defendants' own financial gain.
 2       Defendants engaged in passing off Defendants' products as those of Plaintiffs.
 3       Plaintiff has expended substantial time, resources, and effort to build its goodwill
 4       and good reputation in the CREPES DE PARIS mark.

5           70.      As a result of Plaintiffs efforts, Defendants are now unjustly enriched
 6       and benefiting from property rights wholly owned by Plaintiff and not Defendants.

7           71.      Defendants' unauthorized use of the CREPES DE PARIS mark and of 8       Plaintiff's photos has caused and is likely to cause confusion as to the source of 9       Defendants' products, all to the detriment of Plaintiff.

10          72.      Defendants' acts are willful, deliberate, and intended to confuse
 11       consumers and the public and to injure Plaintiff.

12          73.      Defendants' acts constitute trademark infringement and unfair
 13       competition under California common law.

14          74.      Plaintiff has been irreparably harmed and will continue to be 15       irreparably harmed as a result of Defendants' unlawful acts unless Defendants are 16       permanently enjoined from Defendants' unlawful conduct.

17          75.      The conduct herein complained of was extreme, outrageous,
 18       fraudulent, and was inflicted on Plaintiff in reckless disregard of Plaintiffs rights 19       such that it supports an award of exemplary and punitive damages in an amount
 20       sufficient to punish and make an example of the Defendants and to deter them 21       from similar such conduct in the future.

22          76.      Defendants' acts have damaged and will continue to damage Plaintiff,
 23       and Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

24          77.      In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief
 25       enjoining Defendants from using the CREPES DE PARIS mark, Plaintiffs' photos,
 26       designs, or any other goods associated with Plaintiff, and to recover all damages,
 27       including attorneys' fees, that Plaintiff has sustained and will sustain and all gains,

3 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

4 Trade Dress Infringement

5 (Against all Defendants)

6 78. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference paragraphs 1 through 77
above as though fully set forth herein.

8 79. Plaintiff's trade dress at issue in this action consists, among other
9 things, of the goods including, but not limited to, Plaintiff's Crepes De Paris
10 restaurant style and design, Menu listings and designs, crepes design, coffee or 11 cappuccino cream design, other food designs, and coffee cups, plates, and other 12 glasswares, and photographs.

13 80. Plaintiff's trade dress is nonfunctional.

14 81. The trade dress of CREPES DE PARIS is inherently distinctive and 15 has acquired secondary meaning. Plaintiff has been selling the food products with 16 its distinctive trade dress since at least 2007 in and around Southern California and 17 has devoted substantial time, effort, and expense to marketing and selling its 18 products.

19 82. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that 20 Defendants have been advertising, marketing, distributing, selling, and offering to 21 sell using goods, devices, designs and other instruments that incorporate Plaintiff's.

22 83. Defendants are not now, and never have been, authorized by Plaintiff 23 to use its trade dress or any confusingly similar trade dress in connection with 24 advertising, marketing, distributing, selling, and offering to sell using goods, 25 devices, designs, and other instruments that incorporate Plaintiff's.

26 84. Defendants' advertising, marketing, distributing, selling, and offering 27 to sell using goods, devices, designs, and other instruments is likely to cause

1 confusion, mistake, and/or deception among consumers as to the source, quality
 2 and nature of Plaintiff's business.

3       85. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that as a 4 proximate result of the unfair advantage accruing to Defendants' business from 5 deceptively trading on Plaintiff's efforts, including design, manufacture,
 6 advertising, sales, and consumer recognition, Defendant has made substantial sales
 7 and profits in amounts to be established according to proof.

8       86. As a proximate result of the unfair advantage accruing to Plaintiff's
 9 business from deceptively trading on Plaintiff's design, manufacture, advertising, 10 sales, and consumer recognition, Plaintiff's business has been damaged and 11 deprived of substantial sales of its goods and has been deprived of the value of its 12 trade dress as a commercial asset, in amounts to be established according to proof.

13       87. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that, unless 14 restrained by the Court, Defendants will continue to infringe Plaintiff's trade dress, 15 and that pecuniary compensation will not afford Plaintiff adequate relief for the 16 damage to its trade dress in the public perception. Further, Plaintiff is informed and 17 believes, and thereon alleges, that in the absence of injunctive relief, customers are 18 likely to continue being mistaken or deceived as to the true source, origin, 19 sponsorship, and affiliation of Defendants' goods.

20       88. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that 21 Defendants' acts were committed, and continue to be committed, with intent to 22 cause confusion, to cause mistake, and/or to deceive, and to cause injury to the 23 reputation and goodwill associated with Plaintiff and its products. Pursuant to 15
 24 U.S.C. § 1117, Plaintiff is therefore entitled to recover three times its actual 25 damages or three times Defendant's profits, whichever is greater, together with 26 Plaintiffs attorneys' fees. In addition, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1118, Plaintiff is 10 exclusive rights under California law and common law to reproduce, distribute, or 11 license the reproduction and distribution of Plaintiff's designs, photographs, and

23 incorporate the Plaintiff's designs, devices, instruments, and other goods created 24 by Plaintiff.

25 94. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants,
